

SONETT 28

(William Shakespeare)

René Mense
4.4.1997

Exited

♩ = 60

How can I, then, re - turn in happy plight, That am de -

3 - barr'd the bene - fit of rest? When day's oppression is not eas'd by

5 night, But day by night, and night by day op - press'd?

7 And each, though e-ne-mies to o - ther's reign, Do in consent shake hands to

9 tor - ture me; The one by toil, the o - ther to complain

